

Please do not weaken the Indiana "Do Not Call" list by allowing banks or other businesses where a person was a former customer at the business to be exempt from the privacy protection of this law. Since the law was enacted, our phones have been silent during our precious family time. Please reject the request of the banks to allow their telemarketers to invade our privacy again.